

Aperol Summer of August

280++ THB

1. Amalfi Spritz Cocktail

A simple way to enhance your summer parties is with the liberal use of sparkling wines. Serve them on their own, if that's your style, but don't sleep on deploying bubbly into your mixed drinks. Case in point: the Amalfi Spritz, which combines easy-drinking Aperol with Prosecco, lime, and pineapple. It's the kind of drink that begs for a sunny patio, a pool, and maybe an umbrella. And considering its low-alcohol sensibilities, you can sip on this one all day long.

Ingredients:

Aperol Prosecco, pineapple juice, lime juice, soda water

3. Aperol Betty

The best recommendation An Italian summertime Spritz! A delicious alternative to the popular Aperol Spritz. The addition of ruby red grapefruit juice pairs perfectly with the Aperol.

Ingredients:

Aperol fresh grapefruit juice Prosecco, orange j. Grapefruit peel as garnish

2. Rosé Aperol Spritz

It's fizzy, it's pink, it's a cheery aperitif. This spin on the classic Italian Aperol spritz uses sparkling rosé instead of plain prosecco. For a less sweet drink, you can skip the fresh citrus juice and drop a lemon twist into the glass. A wine glass is standard but any glass that fits this quantity of liquid works.

Ingredients:

Aperol, rosé wine, soda water, Green olives as garnish

Aperol Summer of August

280++ THB

4. Classic Aperol Spritz

When it comes to cocktails and aperitifs, the Aperol spritz is one of the first recipes jumping off people's minds. The classic Italian Aperol spritz recipe is one of the most requested by people looking for a refreshing drink to accompany their bits and nibs.

Ingredients:

Aperol, soda water, Prosecco

5. Aperol Spritz Lemon Cello

Want a bubbly citrus cocktail? Try the Limon cello spritz! This sparkling drink has a pure lemon flavor from this Italian liqueur.

Ingredients:

Aperol, Lemon cello, Tonic

